An hopin in health it will find yez,

Niver mind about risidince, Teddy,
Shure yer risidince is under yer hat—
Divil a one have yez got in Kildowery—
Lave to me all such matthers as that,
Shure me sister's son, Paddy Mulloney,
Has a frind in New York who will shwear
That yez worked by his side and dug cellars
In Ameriky many a year,
Teddy, me bye.

When up to the polls ye are marchin',
Shure the naygers will all hold their whisht;
If some blaygard axes impident questions,
Just tip him a shoull uf yer fisht,

Your cousin, DINNIS O'FLAHERTY.

Call and see the beautiful necessities and lux-aries for the toilet even if you do not wish to buy The Fall Fashions-Opening Day. Fashion, poor girl, is very much abus-ed, but withal she serves one good purpose, that of reminding women of the flight of time. Probably not five per cent. of the masculine population of the city thought yesterday that the summer was over and past, and that autumn had once more rallied round. Not so the la-dies, the dear creatures. They knew all about it, and no doubt moralized deeply. The greater part of this moral exercise

> We dropped into Mme. Demorest's establishment. The rooms were crowded, and all day a constant stream of the votaries of fashion marched in and out, and were satisfied. The sights were enough to charm the hearts of the most fas idious and evoke admiration from the most critical and exacting. A beautiful, blue-eyed girl, who knew a powerful lot of fashion, told us all about it, and in such a sweet way as to convince us that there was nothing like fashion.

DRESSES. The Marie Antoinette style still prevails. The bodies are made with capes or fichus, and the skirts with panniers or puffs. This latter arrangement makes the dress bunchy around the hips. The tendency seems to be to build up the hips on the platform style. Bustles are also worn. The Watteau style is worn A mice line of French Cambries and Fancy Lawas. A new Kid Glove which surpasses any thing yet brought into this market, and very ranked. All of which will be sold at reasonable prices. Ladies will find it to their advantage to call and examine for themselves.

Dress and Cloak making in all its varieties under the skillful supervision of Miss Ellen Moore, long and favorably known to the inhabitants of this village and vicinity.

Assuperior Suspender for Skirts or Pants! An unequaled brace for the Shoulders. Always a Suspender. A brace or not at pleasure. Its simplicity, durability, case and convenience commend it to every Lady, Gentleman, or Youth. Examine for yourself, and be convinced that all herein stated is true. Prices, 75 cents, $100, $125, $150.

DEAR TEDDY :

If to sell it yez always refuse?
The way is to pocket the money,
An' then vote just as yez choose,
Teddy, me bye.

An' that brings me round to the shtory
That I'm scratchin' this letter to say;
Election time's comin' an', Teddy,
It's wanted yez are right away;
For Dimmykrats are not so plenty,
But we want all the byes over, shure,
To swing the shillaly, dhrink whishky,
An' shove in the votes for Saymore,
T. ddy, me bye.

He'll fix up yer paper so nately
That ye'll think yez Amerikin born;
In a good shute of clothes ye'll be shtruttin',
Instead of yer brayches all torn.

Under nayger and radicle shway.
Unless saved by the votes and shilelays
Ov the byes fresh from over the say,
Teddy, me bye.

But that's not the worst of it, Teddy, The nayger's a citizen now, Can vote like a Dimmykrat white man,

Will be killin' me Dinnis, I know, An' then comin' down to the shanty An' marryin' me right out of hand !"
That a nayger should marry me Judy
Is more, bedad, than I'll shtand,
Teddy, me bye.

An' we'd soon give the naygers a twisht, Teddy, me bye.
